

Testimonials

Here are a few comments from past attendees:

- ▶ “An excellent program!”
- ▶ “High quality CME for low cost”
- ▶ “Good mix of review and applicability to everyday practice”
- ▶ “Good diversity in topics, excellent lectures”
- ▶ “Low cost for residents with resident funding provided by TRS”
- ▶ “Great way to meet peers”
- ▶ “Very good state chapter meeting”
- ▶ “Knowledgeable and gifted speakers”
- ▶ “Easy to travel to, register, attend”
- ▶ “A great blend of topics that occur daily in general radiology with review of necessary anatomy, clinician needs, and diagnostic pearls.”
- ▶ “Very good intra-state CME for general radiologists”

Fun Things to do in The Woodlands!

Below is a list of favorite attractions of visitors and locals alike...

Grab a menu

You could sample cuisine from the entire world and never leave The Woodlands Town Center, where you'll find a huge smorgasbord of restaurants in all price ranges. From white-linen dining to family restaurants, it's all here. Spaghetti or sushi? Burgers or barbecue? Fish or filet mignon? Chimichangas or chow mein? The choice is yours. And so is the feast.

Look what's in store

The Woodlands Town Center is a shopper's dream come true. You can explore world-renowned department stores, specialty shops, charming boutiques, and discount stores. Whatever you're looking for – from a new wardrobe to new home accessories – you'll find it at The Woodlands Town Center. For a Main Street style shopping experience, stroll the quaint sidewalks of Market Street, or spend some time discovering the many wonders of The Woodlands Mall. Or do what most visitors do – and sample them both!

Get on the green

With 36 holes of championship golf on two magnificent courses, The Woodlands Resort & Conference Center is one of the finest golfing destinations in Texas. And it's just a few minutes away from The Woodlands Waterway. Panther Trail is a great place to challenge your game, with water features and fairways framed by over 20 acres of Texas wildflowers. The Oaks allows golfers of any level to test their skills on one to four sets of tees stretching over 7,000 yards.

Take a mini-cruise

The Woodlands Waterway – a shimmering, 1.25-mile river corridor – links you to the best of The Woodlands Town Center, from shopping to dining to entertainment. Air-conditioned Water Taxis give you a great view of the area while delivering you to your destination. The hotel sits right on the waterway, so a mini-cruise is just a step away.

Stars onstage, stars above

Take a seat at an outdoor performance at the Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion. This exquisite amphitheater attracts hundreds of thousands of concert-goers each year and hosts a broad range of entertainment, from classical to pop to rock-and-roll. Surrounded by a lush forest, this venue offers one of the finest outdoor concert experiences in the Southwest.

Be nurtured by nature

After you've enjoyed the urban charms of the Town Center, be sure to spend some time in the surrounding forest. Hundreds of miles of hiking and biking trails make the natural scenery extremely accessible for visitors. The Woodlands also features spectacular public art, so while you're enjoying the fresh air, keep an eye out for manmade treasures, too.

Look great, feel great

Relax with a healing massage at one of the three spas in the area, or receive your favorite beauty treatments, from a new hairstyle to manicures and pedicures.

Hollywood in the Woods

Drama or romance? Action or comedy? Date movie or family movie? With 17 screens at Tinseltown and another five at Market Street, you can find the perfect film to match your mood. Have a seat, grab some popcorn, and escape to the movies!